

Triple B (Blazer Breeders Best)Rules and Regulations
Conformation and performance show for Blazer yearlings.

First edition-March 2021

This incentive program is designed to encourage Blazer breeders to put forth the most correct and usable Blazer horse conforming to the breed standards. The continuation of the Blazer breed is dependent on breeders striving to produce a horse that is athletic, efficient, trainable and usable in a variety of equine sports, based on the vision of the founder Neil Hinck.

Rules:

1. This is an incentive fund and horse owners to be involved in the Triple B are to pay a fee at conception year(eligibility based on sire and/or dams registration refer to the Blazer handbook section IV 4.1), a fee at birth year and a fee in showing year, yearling, to complete the total entry fee.
2. Horses involved in the Triple B must be the offspring of a Blazer sire or dam or both, as set forth in the Blazer handbook rules and regulations section IV 4.1. The future entry must be registered by Dec 31 of the birth year.
3. The owner must be a member in good standing with the American Blazer Horse Assn.
4. The Blazer Breeder's Best show, Triple B, will be an event sponsored by the ABHA for all qualified yearlings at a time, date and place designated by the ABHA. The event must take place if 2 or more entries are eligible. In the event that only one yearling is eligible, the event will be canceled for that year and the funds returned to the one applicant.

Show:

1. Eligible yearlings are described as any registered stallion, gelding, or filly whose birth year is the previous year of the show.
2. The show shall consist of 2 parts holding equal weight. Conformation and in hand trail course. Whatever the total points for the trail course are, the conformation class will be worth an equal amount of points.
 - a. Conformation will be judged according to the description and rules of registration set forth in the ABHA rule book section IV 4.7.

among show categories according to the pay table.

- c. Ribbons and trophies provided will designate each eligible category shown with year stated. For example: In any given year a stallion, gelding or filly category may not be filled in the show and therefore the ABHA would not be responsible for providing awards for that category.

General rules:

1. Showman may or may not be the owner of the yearling, showman to be designated by owner of yearling. Showman over 18 must be a member of the ABHA. No one under the age of 18, shall be allowed to show in the Stallion division. Know one under 12 years of age shall be allowed to show in the other classes.
2. It is up to each owner to make sure their yearling is in "show shape". To include body condition, grooming, trimmed and in handler's control. If any yearling is disqualified by ABHA or by the judge due to poor body condition or dangerous behavior all fees are forfeited by owner.
3. All showman must be neat and professional in appearance. Button down, collared and long sleeve shirts are required. Show halters must be neat and humane. Rope halters are allowed.
4. All funds, registrations fees and show fees, to be paid by owner(in a timely manner) of entered yearling unless waived and approved by ABHA. Each year's fee to be paid to ABHA by Dec 31st of appropriate year and show year paid by July 31st. A penalty may be assessed by the ABHA for untimely payment.
5. If entry fails to show on show day for any reason all previous payments paid by owner are forfeited. ABHA may consider special circumstances such as injury or death of entry.
6. ABHA may change or add rules at any time so long as all entries are notified in writing in a timely manner.
7. Obstacle course layout is the responsibility of the Triple B chairperson.
8. Course layout will be given to each participant by May 25 of the show year.
